STUDENT EXCHANGE AGREEMENT BETWEEN
YAMAGUCHI UNIVERSITY
AND
UNIVERSIDAD NACIONAL AGRARIA LA MOLINA

Yamaguchi University and Universidad Nacional Agraria La Molina agree as follows in order to ensure the smooth implementation of student exchange of both universities according to Article 1 Point 2 of the Agreement of Understanding between Yamaguchi University and Universidad Nacional Agraria La Molina, which both universities conclude:

1. Eligible Exchange Students

   Undergraduate students and graduate students of both universities are eligible.

2. Reception Period

   An exchange student's reception period is limited to two semesters (to one year).

3. Number of Exchange Students

   Both universities can recommend up to "five" exchange students every year. The number should be decided by deliberations between both universities. Both universities will attempt to exchange students on a one-to-one equal exchange for a period as agreed by the both universities. If an unequal exchange ration occurs in any period, a balance will be attempted over the following two to three year period or the exchange will be reviewed.

4. Selection of Students

   Each university has a responsibility to decide an exchange student's entrance formalities independently. Selection of an exchange student considers their obtained grade as a priority. The exchange student who is recommended has to meet the admission standards of the host university, and he/she has to have both adequate knowledge of the subject and other study capability. Each university has the right of determination of acceptance of the recommended exchange student.

5. Status of Exchange Students

   The status of the exchange student is non-degree student. The exchange student does not have the degree conferment qualification of the host university.

6. Acquisition of Credits and Grades

   The home university can accept the credits and grades which the exchange student acquired at the host university as official grades according to the home university's regulations.

7. Subjects of Student

   In consideration of an exchange student's study situation, both universities determine the subjects.

8. Tuition, Entrance Fee, and Examination Fee

   Both universities shall not charge exchange students tuition fees, entrance fees and examination fees.

9. Necessary Expenses

   Necessary expenses, such as travel expenses, accommodation fees, living expenses, and medical insurance, are taken as an exchange student's burden.

10. Insurance

Exchange students are responsible for contracting their own medical insurance in accordance with the policy of the host university, and to provide proof to the host university upon request.

11. Accommodations

Both universities should make the maximum effort to obtain an exchange student's accommodations.

12. Other Points

Regarding the procedure for studying abroad and the acquisition of a study-abroad visa, both universities should provide all possible services for exchange students.

13. Amendments to or Cancellation of the Agreement

Both universities may discuss the terms set forth in this agreement at any time if needed. If a situation which requires the correction or repeal of this Agreement arises, each university must notify the other party by letter six months in advance.

14. Term of the Agreement

This Agreement is drawn up in English and Spanish and both universities have copies of it. The term of validity of this Agreement is the same period in accordance with the "Agreement of Understanding between Yamaguchi University and Universidad Nacional Agraria La Molina".
