Letter of Intent for Cooperation between

Michigan State University and the Universidad Nacional Agraria La Molina

A delegation from Michigan State University visited the Universidad Nacional Agraria La Molina in June 2016. The delegation had cordial discussions with Rector Enrique Ricardo Flores Mariazza, Vice Rector Jorge Alarcón Novoa, Vice Rector of Research Carmen Velezmoro Sánchez and multiple college deans and faculty researchers. Both universities agreed to further strengthen the existing cooperative relationship by initiating the following programs:

1. Joint research on food, agriculture, animal science, forestry, agriculture economics, health and environmental engineering;
2. Technical, scientific and scholar exchanges;
3. Short courses and technology transfer workshops;

It is agreed that specific agreements will be signed when approved by the administrators of the Universidad Nacional Agraria La Molina and Michigan State University.
